Voters can cast their ballots June 2 through June 4 at the County's 10 Designated Locations

FREEHOLD, NJ – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon is reminding voters that they have more ways and more days to vote in person with the option of early voting for the 2023 Primary Election. “New Jerseyans have more ways and more days to vote in person in New Jersey,” said Clerk Hanlon. “Early in person voting offers voters evening and weekend hours, resulting in more time and more convenience for voters to cast their ballots.”
